Excerpt from Report of the Secretary of the Interior, Communicating the Report of John Claiborne, Special Agent Appointed to Collect Statistics on the Consumption of Cotton in Europe, 1858 Sir: A recent appropriation having been made by Congress to enable the Commissioner of Patents to collect and report information in relation to the consumption of cotton in the several countries of the world, you have been selected to aid in carrying out the objects of that appropriation. To render the desired information more reliable and complete, it has been judged expedient that you should visit different portions of Europe; and, as it is important that the result of your investigations should be laid before Congress at an early day of its next session, it will be necessary that you should commence your labors with the least possible delay. Time will not permit you to visit all the countries in the world where cotton is consumed, nor would such a course be expedient if it were practicable. You will probably be able to extend your personal observations to the most important points in England, France, Russia, Switzerland, Austria, Prussia, and perhaps some of the other countries of Europe. You will here find sources of information extending to all quarters of the globe, and which will be sufficient to satisfy the present expectations of Congress. Though the consumption of cotton abroad is the great subject of inquiry, your attention should not be limited too narrowly to that one point. It is evidently the intention of Congress to ascertain all facts which have a bearing, either directly or indirectly,...
