LA MASCHERA DEL SAMURAI.

Edizioni Mediterranee, 2009. Book Condition: new. Traduzione di Faccia M. Roma, 2009; br., pp. 140, ill., cm 15,5x21. (Arti marziali). Le virtù del samurai, quali sono immortalate nel bushido, la via del guerriero, hanno profondamente impregnato la nazione giapponese, fin dalle lotte dei clan dell'epoca feudale, in cui i samurai potevano esercitare il loro indomabile coraggio in combattimento e provare la loro determinazione a vincere, fino agli attacchi suicidi della seconda guerra mondiale, il cui codice d'onore si cristallizzò in un eroismo nazionalista. Ma la costante ricerca della perfezione che guidava i samurai si manifestò anche nella pratica delle arti, che talvolta essi segnarono durevolmente con la propria impronta, come nella cerimonia del tè, nel gioco del go o nella meditazione zen. Le figure del samurai sono molteplici e molto più ricche di quanto le apparenze non lascino credere, e la presente opera ne svela la realtà attraverso la loro storia, che è anche quella del Giappone, una realtà nascosta dietro il mempo, la terrificante maschera del guerriero a cavallo, destinata insieme a spaventare il nemico e a negarsi allo sguardo degli altri.
