

London Large: Bloody Liberties (Paperback)

By Mr Roy Robson

London Large Publishing, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A nation under attack. Treason stalks the corridors of power. Can a renegade people s army turn the tide? Bloody Liberties is the third book in the London Large crime thriller series. Harry H Hawkins, now retired from the Metropolitan Police and living a serene life in the bosom of his family, wakes up one morning to find chaos and violence rampaging across Britain, from warzone-like football matches to terrorist bombs, from large-scale prison breakouts to inexplicable mass street fighting. With the authorities struggling to connect the dots H realizes that his domestic idyll is over - his city, and his country, need him. He receives information from a security service whistleblower that key players within the British establishment have been corrupted by those behind the chaos, and are involved in supporting their activities and aims - whatever they may be. As the mounting chaos threatens to pull the country apart H comes to understand that he and his colleagues are in uncharted waters; no one in authority can be trusted, fake news dominates the media and all usual channels of communication...
