By 1839 this book was the standard textbook for learning the Constitution in American classrooms. Written as a catechism in question and answer format, Stansbury s 1828 edition contains 332 Questions/Answers on the Constitution with step by step commentary on all of the important features of a government of law and not of men. The Catechism was first used in the early 1800 s for school children but should be required reading in every school today. It is an excellent way to re-acquaint you with the nature and benefit of strict constitutional government. An ignorant people are easily betrayed, and a wicked people can never be ruled by the mild influence of their own laws. - Arthur J. Stansbury.
