Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Washington Spurious Letters: A Paper Read Before the Mount Vernon Society of Detroit As everything relating to Washington is interesting to the members of this society, I venture to say a few words in regard to a subject brought accidentally to my notice; if it is already familiar to the ladies present I must beg their indulgence. Just before the last Mt. Vernon meeting I was in the city library, and seeing in the catalogue a volume entitled: Epistles; Domestic, Confidential and Official of General Washington, I brought it away thinking I might find something new in it, as indeed I did.
