Vintage, 2011. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: [Compass Rose] is marvelous, returning us to South County, Pierce and Sawtooth Point. . . . This splendid novel lives and breathes with all its psychic powers and complex human spirit. - Providence Journal Beautiful, elegiac. . . . Caseys portrayal of . . . South County is carefully observed, lovingly rendered and delicately parsed-a full-throated celebration of the natural world. - The New York Times Book Review Casey can write the thoughts, feelings, emotions, hopes and dreams of women, be they wives, mothers, daughters or lovers, better than anyone. - The Seattle Times Each character in Mr. Caseys large cast is gratifyingly complex, and the novel hums with energy. - The Wall Street Journal Casey is a brilliant observer. . . . Breathtaking. - San Francisco Chronicle An old-fashioned comfort food novel. - Minneapolis Star-Tribune Splendid. . . . By the end of the book [readers] may well feel as if they themselves had spent several years living in South County. And many such readers, I predict, will be reluctant to leave. -Troy Jollimore, Los Angeles Times John Casey luminously celebrates a young woman who is indeed the compass for her fractured family and community. . . . Rose is a literary rarity-the good and tender-hearted character who is also credible. And Casey has written an affecting story of the way it is-messy, difficult and sometimes radiantly splendid. - The Richmond Times-Dispatch Mr. Casey describes the extreme claustrophobia and menace of small town living well. His Rhode Island hamlet is filled with gossip-thats a given-but also the overlapping, intertwining relationships that exist in these kinds of insular communities. . . . Casey is so adept at presenting character. . . .
