

Business Opportunities in Ukraine

By U S Department of Commerce

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Ukrainian market is poised for progress, guided by a motivated, reform-minded government that has dedicated itself to rooting out market inefficiencies, improving Ukraine s business climate, and pursuing deeper economic integration into the global market. This ambitious agenda is buoyed by a population eager for stability, change, and a return to prosperity. Since the ouster of former President Yanukovich in late-February, Ukraine has made promising headway towards a brighter economic future, instituting a more transparent government procurement system, simplifying business registration requirements, and signing the economic portion of its Association Agreement with the European Union. However, this forward momentum has been attenuated by a shifting regional trade dynamic, Ukraine s overreliance on commodity exports, and still-present issues related to endemic corruption, which are challenges that will need to be managed for Ukraine s economic rebirth to come to fruition. In addition, serious security concerns remain in Eastern Ukraine, specifically in Luhansk and Donetsk oblasts, where violent clashes between the Russia-backed separatists and Ukrainian forces have escalated in recent months and have resulted in hundreds of injuries and...
