Ecopreneur Interview Series: Author Diana TenesPart 13 in a series where Krates Ng (co-founder of Mokugift the ecard service) interviews fellow ecopreneurs. Today, Krates interviews Diana Tenes, author of 90 OFF Every Day! 1) Why did you start your companySo many people would ask how I could dress so nice and have nice things as a struggling single mom When I said Second Hand Shopping, it was a huge surprise to most people. The first question was Where do you shop That is when I realized people did not have a clue how to shop second hand or where. I saw a need for specific information on how to shop second hand. People dont know how to. it requires different skills. Retail stores seduce you with their coupons and slick advertisements, jingles and websites. They let you shop easily, but you pay for that luxury deeply. Some of these companies are doing really negative things to our planet as well. 2) Is there a story behind the name of your company90 OFF Every day! describes the value, joy, exhilaration when you find something valuable for your efforts of shopping second hand. 3) What was the toughest challenge in getting your company through the most recent growth stage and how you got overcame the challengel wrote this book in 2002 and realized I needed to bring peoples attention to my message. It is as relevant in 2002, if not more important now, than ever. I decided it was a very worthwhile message that can change our planet and peoples lives in a simple positive direct way. It is a green activity, a way of life, a skill anyone can learn, you can...
