

Faith, the Fount of Exegesis: The Interpretation of Scripture in the Light of the History of Research on the Old Testament

By Ignacio Carvajosa

Ignatius Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. This book is a response to a desire expressed by the then Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger (the future Pope Benedict XVI) who called for a diachronic study of the results of the historical-critical method. The study of the last 150-200 years of biblical research shows how the claim to scientific rigor made in many works, that is, the claim to have obtained results comparable in their certainty to those of the natural sciences, is clearly unrealistic. This is a comprehensive analysis of the results of almost two centuries of the historical-critical method in two areas: the investigation into the sources of the Pentateuch and the study of the figure of the prophet. It reveals the philosophical and cultural presuppositions which influenced the development of exegesis and its most notable hypotheses, demonstrating the world of prejudices which frequently have conditioned the exegesis called scientific. It also engages the characteristic dimensions of the Catholic interpretation of the Old Testament, attempting to unify the two basic dimensions of the exegetical method: history and theology. Overcoming the disconnect between scientific exegesis and believing theology is...
