Mascot Books, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Staci s son, Austin, suffered with multiple medical and behavioral maladies throughout most of his childhood. She was tired of doctors speculations and medications with abysmal side effects. Staci s faith and her perseverance to find a solution for Austin s health needs led her to an alternative treatment model known as integrative medicine. How Do I Help My Child? is a question being asked by countless parents. Emerging health crises in childrenADHD, autism, anxiety, allergies, and digestive illnessesprevent families from thriving. Integrative medicine placed Austin at the center of care and uncovered the nature of his illness, resulting in healing and overall wellness. Staci invites you along on her mission to recover the health of our children in a world filled with unhealthy foods and environmental toxins. Included is a guide to integrative medicine rooted in her years of experience and nutritional savvy, as well as resources that make helping your child a little simpler.
