

A Vesture Dipped in Blood (Paperback)

By Paul Kenneth Hubbard

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It is the thesis of this book that John s hybrid Gospel synthesizes many of the leading theological ideas of Paul - most significantly, 1st Corinthians 15 - with the meta-structure of Matthew, combining many of the major features of the Synoptic template with John s unique, extended, explanatory table talk section - important pre-resurrectional talk between the apostles and Christ (chapters 13-17). In relation to Matthew s Gospel, Luke and Mark are parallel accounts which are sometimes complementary. John is a complementary account which is sometimes parallel. This book also attempts to show that 1st John is written shortly after John s Gospel, pushing much further out in support of Paul s controversial thesis concerning the relationship between faith and works, spelled out so forcefully in Romans, and that 2nd John confirms circumstantial evidence surrounding the production of John s Gospel and his first epistle - that John s audience has been the now neglected church of Corinth, and evinces a continuing interdependency between John and Paul. It is also maintained that 3rd John displays considerable evidence that...
