Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Two of Cristabel Sappho s sensual, sensuous and erotic novellas in a single volume Georgia Veronica captures the start of a wonderful and most unexpected affair. Veronica is a late-thirties woman with a boring husband, boring job and a feeling that her best - for which read, most sensual - days are behind her. All that really gives her joy are the many and various lesbian fantasies she has lately discovered lurking in a forgotten back room of her mind. One of those fantasies - increasingly, the most arousing - focuses on the beautiful owner of an up-market shoe shop. Georgia is indeed beautiful and, in most things, confident. Love, however, has never been one of those things. So, despite all the attention her looks and charm have attracted over the years, at twenty-five she is still untouched by any but her own fingers. So why Veronica? For all that the woman herself worries about the question, and for all that Georgia doesn t really know the answer, on first meeting they just click. Meaning they then find themselves thinking more and more about each other. Meaning that on a second chance meeting they are as tongue-tied as love-struck teenagers. Then courage takes a hold. They arrange a drink in a local wine bar. And there, in a quiet corner with a bottle of good wine, they talk and laugh and tease and laugh some more until the presence of love is undeniable. An unexpected but most definitely a desired and welcome love. A love they will now treasure and nurture like the precious gift it is. In The Garden Of Lesbian Delight is the story of five wonderfully uninhibited...
