CAMP 4 FRIENDS (HARDBACK)

bookforces publishing, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Join Butch, Bill, Brian and Joe on a summer vacation at Camp Abenaki. Four boys that meet on the first day of summer camp and in the days that follow, they become friends. Together, they will discover strength, encounter challenges, endure loss, build trust, and open their hearts. In this moving novel, author Jack Hall traces their unforgettable journey--full of tests and trials--as four boys discover the important bond that will last a lifetime. In a journey of friendship, the four friends grow closer and become an inseparable group known at camp as the 4 Friends. Jack Hall tells this story that spans the summer vacation, 4 Friends stick together as a vibrant group of characters and learn to manage the challenges we face in life. Sometimes we get that lucky and have friends forever by our side going through life. This book uses a fictive location called Camp Abenaki. The Summer Camp Abenaki is a charming place where kids can make friends for life, realize new desires and learn to be self-determining. At Abenaki, children learn the values of collaboration and teamwork - all while bounded by a majestic landscape with natural forest, lakes, mountains, and wide-open spaces that are so often missing in today's big congested cities. At Abenaki, kids discover who they are and what drives them. Camp Abenaki is one of the finest summer camps there is located on picturesque Lake Abenaki. The camp is nestled among magnificent trees and was established in 1908, and today it assures beliefs built on timeless values. Camp Abenaki places the highest significance in shaping new, lifelong friendships, clarifying that its campers achieving confidence from guiding new circumstances. and arise self-assured, compassionate...
