Excerpt from Syrinx The next was to be at supper in town the same evening, and the girl had decided to keep it, unless of course the insistence of the paramot Ego intervened at the last moment. But it was still delightfully uncertain. She might miss the train, she knew, but the risk could not quicken her stroke by one in the minute. If she got there, well. If not, equally well; and possibly she would join the others quite late and make a distinguished entrance - ii indeed there were others to join, for they might have elected to stay at Brighton until the last train and let the meal go hang. Still, it was not every day that one of the celestial host was rich enough to give a Carlovingian banquet, and the event was not lightly to be set aside. They would possibly all come and bring others. Zeus send that Maurice Laleham s sudden af uence would be equal to the added strain! Not that it mattered. A deficiency in the budget only heightened the comedy, and gave one...
