Alterations If I could alter my body There are many things I could be On hot humid day a shady tree Or a natural spring sparkling and cool A pink rosebush in full bloom To tease the nose and expel the gloom A peaceful night and long Serenaded by a night-in-gale s song Vision for the blind, strength for the weak A voice for those who cannot speak A quite place for the tired and weary A peal of laughter from the joy of the merry An eraser of wars, a healer of minds A kettle of kindness for those unkind A shield for the embryo, earth, air and sea Shelter for the homeless I d even be If I could change my form and then Return to me.
