New Village Press, United States, 2006. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. James Jiler combines an engaging personal account of running a highly successful horticultural vocation program at the largest jail complex in the United States with a practical guide to starting and managing prison and re-entry gardening programs. The Greenhouse Project gives horticultural job-training to male and female inmates at New York City s Rikers Island jail system. After release, ex-offenders can intern with the GreenTeam, which provides landscaping and gardening services to community groups and institutions throughout New York State. Jiler s humor and heartfelt stories about prison community and clear explanations of what works broaden this book s appeal to all social activists involved with at-risk populations.
