Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2009. Hardback. Book Condition: New. New.. 218 x 142 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.While pre-modernity is often considered to be the time of non-European regions and modernity is seen as belonging to the West, this book seeks to transcend the temporal bifurcation of that world history into pre-modern and modern , as well as question its geographical split into two irreconcilable trajectories: the European and the non-European. The book examines shared experiences of modern transformation or modernity in three regions -- China, India and the Ottoman Empire -- which conventional historiography identifies as non-European, and therefore, by implication, outside of modernity or only tangentially linked to it as its victim. In other words, this work looks at modernity without reference to any idealised criteria of what qualifies as modern or not, studying the negotiation and legacies of the early modern period for the modern nation state. It focuses on the experience of modernity of non-European regions for they play a crucial role in the new phase of transformational patterns may have deeper roots than are generally assumed. Rejecting European characterisations of eastern states as Oriental despotisms, the volume...
