AUSTIN S STORY (PAPERBACK)

Outskirts Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Austin s life was destroyed by self-indulgence, neglect, and abuse. However, through the hearts of many, Austin s life was restored with meaning and peace. This story reflects Austin s life and his desire to help others. With no Dad and an alcoholic mother, Austin s trials of foster care scarred his journey into adulthood. However, Austin continues to touch many lives today. From the hope others gave him, Austin wants to give hope to those who suffered as he. Austin s testimony testifies that we have a great social structure here in the United States. As a toddler, Austin only acted out and learned what he was taught. Once asked, What is a joint? He responded, A place to get beer. During foster care, Guardian angels supported him the best they could. Even in the darkest hour, there was hope for Austin. Austin s adoption at age seven placed him with a permanent family. Once adopted, Austin s parents learned he had fetal alcohol syndrome. Austin s mother, an alcoholic, stunted Austin s cognitive abilities as well as his physical body. However, it did not stop Austin s enthusiasm for life. His guardian angels surprised him at Christmas one year that he still talks about today. As a youngster, Austin never tired of trying new things and meeting new people. Once he picked up a six-foot snake to show you his new friend. As Austin developed from youth into adolescence, the demons of the past encircled him and his parents put him into a Group Outdoor Camp. The goal of the wilderness camp was to help troubled youth. His placement at Three Springs came about through Judge George F. Bason s work in...
