Thorncrown, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Anyone that has ever had the privilege of being in the presence of children, would agree that it doesn t take long for their curiosity to shine through. The book, Mama, Who Made the Sea?, portrays this curiosity through the constant questions of a little boy, asking his mother, who made all of the magnificent pieces of nature in which we see in our world. His mother s response remains the same throughout the entire book, reassuring the boy that our ultimate Creator is responsible for all of the wonders of the earth-including him! This fun, uplifting, children s book is great for all young children and reminds its reader how great and mighty our God is.
