RESURRECTED Book One of the Tender Mysteries Series His interference infuriates her. Her passion inspires him. July, 1895. Hope, Nebraska. For years Deborah Willet has been protecting her sisters without the interference (or aid) of any man. Though she s often resented the responsibilities heaped on her after her parents and brothers are killed in a flood, she s done her duty just fine on her own. When family treasures begin to disappear, she s confident she can locate the nasty villain stealing from her family without the help of any outsiders--until Steven Paxton raises doubts about everything she s always believed in. For months Steven has convinced the world he isn t the least bit upset about the accident which put him in a wheelchair. Secretly, he spends most of his time wallowing in self pity, refusing to do the rehabilitation exercises the doctor has told him will restore the use of his legs. He...
