Cursum Perficio, the book, is author Gary Vitacco-Robles exploration of Marylins last home as a touchstone to her brief and extraordinary life. A definitive testament of Marilyn Monroes modest nature, simple tastes and spirituality was her selection of a house in which to settle at age 35. The Spanish Colonial hacienda symbolizes Marylins unfulfilled dreams and unfinished life. The Latin inscription on the tiles adorning the front doorstep, Cursum Perficio (translating to My journey ends), prophesied the screen goddess death in the home in 1962. Cursum Perficio invites us inside Marylins private life through 120 illustrations and previously unpublished photos of her hacienda and its contents. See the interior, Marylins art and decorations purchased on a shopping spree in Mexico, and the furniture delivered days before her death. Vitacco-Robles reveals the events during Marylins last months, her daily routine, and her random acts of kindness. Cursum Perficio is not a sensational exploitation of Marilyn Monroe but a celebration of the human being behind the legend. It is a rare and refreshing exploration for the most devout fan and an insightful introduction for those just discovering this enduring icon of the Twentieth Century. This expanded second edition contains added chapters and new images by Brandon Heidrick. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
