Excerpt from The Adventures of Downy Green However, it is not with Sir Verdant that we are concerned, but with his family. His own marriage with Miss Martha Honeywood was blessed with two sons, Verdant and Tony, and with three daughters. Tony developed a scientific turn. He discovered a secret for the preparation of soap from petroleum, and emigrated to the State of Lavinia in North America to work it on the spot. The business thrived. He married Miss Angelica Downy, a penniless New England beauty, and had issue five sons and four daughters.
