Harehound An Existential Fable

By Gary M Koeppel

Coast Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 132 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 0.3in. Harehound is a fable about Forward Cheque, a white Saluki greyhound racing dog who, one day during a chase, catches Rusty, the mechanical hare, and discovers that it is not a creature but a thing. The rest of the story deals with the question: How does a Hound live in the world without a Hare? When he informs his fellow kennel hounds about his discovery, they ridicule him in disbelief and call him Harehound. But an old hound, Colonel Flash, worries that Harehound's discovery will drive the other hounds insane with doubt and asks him to chase on faith as if the hare were real. During the next chase, Harehound chases as if but during the race the old Colonel's heart gives out and his chasing days come to an end. Harehound becomes even more disillusioned. When Harehound tries to speak with his longtime confidant Lady Suir, an elegant elder hound, he learns that she is more concerned about the appearance of things rather than their reality. He then tries to find solace in Janice Lee, a passionate she hound, but learns he cannot escape from his newly discovered...

Reviews

Absolutely essential go through publication. It is filled with knowledge and wisdom. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

An incredibly awesome publication with perfect and lucid reasons. It can be written in simple phrases and not confusing. I am just delighted to let you know that this is actually the very best publication I actually have studied during my very own lifestyle and could be the best publication for actually.
