Excerpt from The Bridge of History Over the Gulf of Time: A Popular View of the Historical Evidence for the Truth of Christianity Evidence has only formed a part of my work, as a lecturer, during these last fourteen years. The Miracles, the Resurrection, the perfect Moral Teaching, and the unique excellence Of the character of Christ, have also been repeatedly taken up and treated in my lectures. And being deeply aware of the tendency to atheistic questioning in our day, I have also dealt with the arguments for Natural, as well as Revealed Religion. Thus, I have treated familiarly and in popular terms, not only the Design argument, so finely expounded by Paley, but also the Argument a-priori - now, at length, after all the partial successes of Clarke, and Howe, and Locke, and a host of lesser names, so perfectly and irrefutably established by my highly intelligent friend, Mr. Gillespie. The argument for Gods existence from the fact of our own Moral Nature, the arguments against Mate. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books....
