By A M Hartstock

Bartleby Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Just in time for the fall reading season, Bartleby Press is releasing its newest work of literary fiction, Catching the Drift. Inspired by novels in the vein of Faulkner and Flannery O Connor and filmography such as Inception and Shutter Island, author A. M. Hartsock weaves a gripping tale of best friends turned embattled lovers. Barely surviving a ruthless shooting in his Montana hometown, sixteen-year old Alex Fahlstrom awakens from a coma only to find that his memory is compromised. In an attempt to build a new life that has no semblance of their roots, Alex s family moves to Kansas City. Lost and emotionally adrift in this new town, Alex seeks comfort from a cast of eccentric high school strangers, including a rebellious, rock-loving partygoer and his intriguing twin sister. Alex falls for Danielle, and as he gets sucked into her brutal family drama, he begins to unlock the secrets to his own past. Set amidst the grunge and angst of the early 1990s, Catching the Drift is a twisted tale of a romantic relationship gone horribly awry. Readers must pay...
