THE BRIDE WORE BLACK (PAPERBACK)

Xulon Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wholly original and authentic, The Bride Wore Black is a true story of some serious sin.and a Savior! The tone may be Sex in the City to start, but it s a tale of total triumph in the end. I understand that at times it may read more like a fictional novel than reality, but trust me, there is no illusion in it. To me, fiction is a waste of time when real life issues are so relevant and riveting. Excerpt from book We must never forget that sin will always take us further than we intend to go; keep us longer than we were planning to stay; and cost us more than we were prepared to pay, says Author, Glenda Motsavage. The writing is a trio of serious life events [terminal illness, spiritual witchcraft, and a prison sentence] that were all transformed into opportunities for personal and spiritual growth. A riveting piece of reading! Not only is it well done, but also screams out scores of issues that many people are dealing with today. I especially like the walk through the various parts of Glenda s life and how they all eventually lead to a saving knowledge of Christ; a must read for all. Ronald B. Liples, Pastor/Christian Counselor GLENDA MOTSAVAGE is a licensed minister, certified Christian counselor, Bible teacher, conference speaker, and author of several publications. After being divinely healed from terminal cancer in 1988, Glenda has been compelled to lead a life devoted to spreading God s Word. She, along with her husband Stan are co-founders of Sozo Ministries, an evangelistic ministry with a vision to teach and impart the healing power of God. Through the message of Sozo...
