He has the superintendency and control of the summoning, examining, and assigning of jurors who are to sit in the court. He has certified public accountants working under him, who render to him monthly and annual reports of the court s finances. The financial department is as well organized as Marshall Field s. The loss of a cent is registered in the Chief Justice s office. This financial supervision was given to the Chief Justice of this court because a few years before its organization the clerks of the Circuit and Superior Courts of Chicago had stolen upward of $50,000 each, of public funds without the Courts discovering it. Outsiders called these large thefts to the attention of the Judges. Thus, you see, the Chief Justice of this court has wide power and very great responsibility. The business men who advocated the creation of this office dc red the court to have an executive just as large business corporations have a chairman of the board of directors. The entire Police Department of the City of Chicago was placed under control of the court as ex-officio bailiffs. The court passed rules governing the conduct of police in making arrests, so that in the performance of their duties the police act as bailiffs of the Municipal Court subject to its rules and regulations. We have then 5,000 police officers who are ex-officio bailiffs. The Chief of Police of...
