Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In 1859 violence ruled the nation, recruiting innocence and requiring it to bend its knee. An unforeseen recruit appeared in the shape of a nineteen-year old antebellum boy reporting for his first day of work in an unsettled part of western Virginia. His only assets were a quick tongue, a likable wit, and obstinacy to bending his knee. In the span of two hours, violence--in the shape of a boss s mule club--strikes at an iron foundry. Iron workers strike, ejecting the boy into a thirty-year odyssey, running from the hanging rope. Violence threw Crazy Ol Brown and Harpers Ferry at him; threw the Civil War at him; threw the Kansas Redlegs and the Missouri Bushwhackers at him; threw the great Sioux wars onto his path--still this boy refused to bend his knee. His innocence earns him Touch the Cloud--the much desired cousin of the Sioux War Chief Gall, and he finds love as only the Sioux know it, only to lose her to violence. His exploits on the plains bring him a second love, Speaks to Sky--the most gifted of all...
