Parthenon Publishing House. Paperback. Condition: New. 265 pages. London Book Festival Honorary MentionYear 2300Protea: Capitol of the Eldanarian IsleTwo hundred years have passed since the lands of the Outerworld humans were destroyed, save but a handful of rebellious cities. In their ruin, the last gods of Earth, the Illyrians, rose victorious. And ever since, its with a cruel iron fist theyve ruled over their subjects--desperate to keep their thrones. Fast approaching his teens, Ionikus Reaves knows the gods malevolence all too well, orphaned by them after their call for a military draft on Eldanar, his home island. But when a power once dormant in Ion boils to the surface, hes whisked off to a hidden world of the island, where he comes face-to-face with the mighty Illyrians. For Ion is a Guardian--a reincarnated god bound to serve and protect the pantheon hes so quickly learned to hate. Now torn between his obligations as a Guardian and his hatred of the gods hes to guard, Ion finds himself in the middle of a war within himself. A war that could uncover a dark secret of the gods. . . and split the pantheon in two. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
