

Garden Guide: New York City (Paperback)

By Nancy Berner, Susan Lowry

WW Norton Co, United States, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Revised Edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. Tucked inside venerable museums, perched on rooftops, concealed behind sleek midtown facades, and waiting beyond unassuming gates you may have passed a hundred times, if you know where to look, remarkable gardens welcome visitors in almost every corner of New York City. From the windy bluffs of The Heather Garden in Fort Tryon Park to the bold, contemporary Gantry Plaza State Park in Hunters Point, Queens, to the innovative, recently-opened High Line, this pocket-sized guide tells the stories of more than 100 gardens in New York City's boroughs. In addition to presenting the flora and fauna of New York's urban fabric, it also chronicles the history, events, and personalities behind the green spaces visited by generations of New Yorkers. More than 50 color photos showcase the gardens, with each garden entry offering complete visitor information, clearly-labeled maps of each borough or region, and lively anecdotes sprinkled throughout. Praise for the First Edition: [A] beautiful and instructive guide to 100 gardens (the number du jour) in the five boroughs, as delightful as it is petite. -Verlyn Klinkenborg Find a green oasis near...
