Not illustrated. 1892 Excerpt: .creek.4 John Hansford might have been a son of the merchant tailor of London of the same name mentioned by Mr. Alexander Brown in his Genesis, as entered in a list of the Virginia Company in 1620, and who was probably brother of Sir Humphrey Hanford, Handford, or Hanforth, as the name is variously written. There is no question, however, that the John Hansford of the patents and the John Hansford who was father of the Hansford of history, were one and the same person. He lived on the same creek and in the same county, and was for many years active in the affairs of York county,5 and in 1655 occupied a seat on the Justices Bench. His will was proved November 24,1661, and judging from the number of servants and the amount of silver plate, and other property mentioned in his inventory, recorded June...
