

At the Debt Crossroads: Protecting Yourself from Creditors (Paperback)

By Lorena L Saedi

Shalimar Publishing House, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Are your finances starting to mount? Struggling with debt? Get real life advice from consumer bankruptcy attorney Lorena Saedi, founder of a top consumer bankruptcy law firm and featured radio and TV consumer law and bankruptcy expert. Lorena has met with thousands of people facing almost every type of debt issue. Although some need to file for bankruptcy protection, Lorena is able to help many clients avoid bankruptcy and set-up a financial restructure plan. People struggling with debt have fewer options today because of the state of the economy: loan modifications are a disaster or unavailable for many and creditors are taking more aggressive action against consumers than in the past. You need an up-to-date guide that can help you assess options, find help, discover opportunities, and take action that works. Lorena Saedi's At the Debt Crossroads: Protecting Yourself From Creditors is that guide. Lorena reveals why most conventional wisdom about debt and repayment of debt is just completely wrong. Whether you've lost a job, recently become ill, or going through a divorce, having creditor's constant bombardment..
