Walter Ross is a man who has come upon rough times due to addictions and poor decisions. He is unable to be a father to his daughter or to make a decent living. Things change for Walter after he is viciously attacked one night. At the hospital Walter is given the chance to work with the Tectro Corporation to completely heal from his injuries. A mysterious company, Tectro keeps its promise and improves Walters health, while also giving him an almost supernatural power. After leaving the corporation, Walter finds himself sensing crimes before they happen and being drawn to stop the violent acts. It seems that the Tectro Corporation has designed him to be a hero, and that is exactly what he becomes until an attempt to save a life goes wrong. A flaw in Walters enhancements is revealed, and he is suddenly abandoned by the corporation. Though they were supposed to return him to normal, something continues to drive Walter; however, he no longer has the restraint he had before as he goes after future criminals. Acting on his...
