The balance of the furniture consists of three pedestal dining tables, in mahogany and of the popular Duncan Phyfe type, inlaid card tables, sewing and tripod tables. Mention is made of the following examples that will make a special appeal because of their rarity, - a Queen Anne walnut tea table with oblong tray top and Dutch feet, and a block-front card table attributed to a cabinetmaker of Newport, R. I. Each session of the sale begins with early American glass in varied colors and ends with a number of hand-woven linen and wool, and white candlewick American coverlets of the last century.
