By Daniele Bourdais, Sue Finnie

Brilliant Publications, United Kingdom, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: French . Brand New Book. The focus for this book is on the different ways people greet each other in different countries. Traditional greetings have become the cultural norms and are often a sign of respect. Pupils in multi-ethnic classes may volunteer other gestures they know to greet people. Although some may seem amusing at first, pupils can learn to respect that their way is not the only or valid way to behave. In France, it is common to say Salut ! (Hi!) to friends. To be polite, the French commonly add Monsieur when greeting a man, or Madame when greeting a woman. La bise (kiss) is mainly for people you know well. People kiss on both cheeks. Sometimes, people kiss three times (right cheek, left, and then right again). Pupils can easily and quickly read this short, attractive, highly-illustrated French book for a sense of enjoyment and achievement. The book can be used to introduce children to reading in French and help them to improve their reading skills. It strongly supports Intercultural Understanding by making a point of revealing, via the texts and the pictures, various cultural aspects of life...
