

The New Graduate s Guide to Finding a Marketing Job in the San Francisco Bay Area (Paperback)

By Albert Qian

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For new college graduates, finding their first job in marketing is one of the hardest things they will ever do. Between competing with hundreds of other applicants for one position, creating a personal brand, and learning what it means to be a professional, the process is overwhelming. Simply applying for marketing jobs, especially in the San Francisco Bay Area is not enough. New graduate success in the employment market means getting out there to network, create a brand, and so much more. In this book, readers will discover salient tips to be successful alongside a directory of networking events where they can get started.
