Pre-Columbian art refers to the visual art, crafts and architecture from indigenous people from the Caribbean, Central, and South America c.13,000 BCE - 1500 CE up to the time period marked by the arrival in the Americas of the Spanish Conquistadors in 1492. The amazing civilisations that existed during this time such as the Aztec and Maya in Central America and the Inca in South America produced a wide variety of wonderful visual arts, including textiles and paintings, rock and cave sculptures, ceramics, architectural features including interior murals, wood panels, priceless gold and silver jewellery and artefacts. In this colouring book, artist Jorge Lulic created 40 beautiful designs patterns inspired in authentic traditional ancient Pre-Columbian Art to help you to immerse yourself in creativity, relax and de-stress by putting pencils to paper and colouring each illustration at your own leisure.
