During the past four summers he has taken refuge in the White Mountains from the annual hay-fever which relentlessly pursued him everywhere else; and, finding a congenial home at the Twin Mountain House, he has been in the habit of preaching to the large family of guests in the parlors each Sunday morning. For two summers, also, at the request of the guests, he has led the daily service of morning prayer, at the same time reading and familiarly commenting upon the Bible lesson. Finding so wide and grateful an appreciation of Mr. El linwood s reports of Mr. Beecher s sermons, prayers, and lecture-room talks - a feeling which seems to grow broader and deeper with each succeeding year, and which very many letters from subscribers...
