

The White House: Big Losers (Paperback)

By Robert T. Masella

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.My book is the biographies of four famous political leaders in the history of the United States, dating from the early 1880 s to 1970. These four men held greatly different political views and belonged to most of the major political parties in our country. The first, Henry Clay, gave decades of service in the Senate and as Speaker of the House. He also served as Secretary of State and was involved in many of our foreign treaties. He was called The Great Compromiser because he could get everybody to agree on an answer. With each of his nominations his ego got worse, and he thought he was God. We are better off that he was defeated in his three runs for the Presidency. Next is the sad and pathetic Williams Jennings Bryan. Historians consider him the stupidest and most incompetent to ever be nominated for President (three times). He babbled nonsense about bimetalism and silver and gold, but his only expertise was on the Bible. He died a complete fool following the famous Scopes Monkey Trial. Our third person was a very...
