Brand New Book  Print on Demand .He had Elvis private phone number. He spent an afternoon with a young activist named Martin Luther King, Jr. He talked for hours sipping soda with evangelist Billy Graham. In his memoirs, Final Edition and Me, LaRue Gilleland shares his reporting of these young and up-and-coming game changers and recounts numerous stories from his impressive journalism career including posing as a bootleg whiskey buyer to uncover a local moonshine operation, interviewing a woman who had murdered and sawed her husband into pieces, escaping from a forbidden night club in the old Soviet Union, and failing to measure up to an invitation from movie actress Joan Crawford. A self-professed "hillbilly," Gilleland grew up in a small town in Missouri just north of the Lake of the Ozarks in the 1930s. He earned undergraduate and graduate degrees from the prestigious University of Missouri, Columbia, School of Journalism. Gillelands career as a reporter took him from Honolulu, to L.A., to Tulsa, to Memphis. At the Memphis Commercial Appeal in the 1950s, Gilleland met Elvis Presley as his career began...
