World renowned magician and illusionist Todd Bravura defies death at each performance. Yet after every show someone dies. A ring once possessed by Houdini is the source of his remarkable powers, but all too soon the magic sours and things go terribly wrong. Margie, Todd s wife and partner hides the pregnancy and gives birth to a daughter. Enraged at the deception he devises a plan to rid his life of the burden of fatherhood. Todd leaves the child in an old monastery deep in the woods in exchange for money, but before Margie can rescue the baby she vanishes. Too late they discover the monastery is cursed and haunted by the foolish and innocent trapped within its walls. They seek the help of Sean, a strange man who possess extraordinary powers and knows the forest and the things that creep in the dark. But Sean s hidden past may take their journey deeper into the devil s trap. He crafts a paranormal con game to rescue the baby, but in the end will it be Satan s Sting? If you couldn t stop turning the pages of Illusions of Fame, Read Satan s Sting because the terror continues where Illusions left off.
