Reviews

This publication is indeed gripping and intriguing. It is actually written in basic terms and not difficult to understand. I am just pleased to explain how here is the greatest publication we have read through during my own lifestyle and could be the best pdf for at any time.

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Normal Herald, Vol. 2: November 1896 In order to [place athletics at Nor mal in a position suited to the needs and demands of the students, two things are needed: The first, a large and thoroughly equipped gymnasium, and the second, a competent director and trainer. It is a fact greatly to be. Deplored that entirely too much money was spent in equipping the present gymnasium. The building is too small and is worthless for class drill of any kind, and is not used regularly by the students. We can hardly ex peet our team to successfully compete with ether teams, without any training or preparatory work. The benefit that is to be derived by students from a system of regular exercise under an instructor, cannot be overestimated. May the day soon come when we Will have a gymnasium adapted to the needs of the school. And a salaried director in charge of it.
