Candidates for examination will apply through their commanding officers to general officers commanding. (See pars. 1187-1190c.) Such application should be accompanied by certificates from commanding officers showing, in the case of a captain, that he is qualified under paragraph 1182, and also, in the case of cavalry and infant, that the officer is in possession of a Hythe certificate. General officers commanding will forward to the War Office, not later than April 1 and October 1 in each year, a return, on Army Form B2053, of all officers in their commands who are desirous of being examined in subject (d). Officers will not be examined, except under exceptional circumstances, in an army corps or district other than the one in which they are quartered. 1185. Officers of units serving abroad who may be on leave...
