Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letters There is another circumstance connected with my gallant friend s death, which I cannot refrain from relating, as it gave me then, and does now give me, the greatest pleasure, to think that he was not only regretted by his friends, but that he, in his death, was honoured by his foes. The night previous to the action of the 8th of January, Rennie said to me, I am always hit, and in case I should fall to-morrow, . I beg you will use every endeavour to recover this ring, this brooch with some hair in it, and my watch, and if you survive, deliver them to my sister. After the attack on the lines of New Orleans had failed, atlag of truce was sent from Sir John Lambert to General Jackson. I wrote a few lines by the officer who carried it to the American general, mentioning my friendship for Colonel Rennie, and his request to me. On the return of the ?ag of truce, I received a polite message from General Jackson, saying that it gave him the greatest pleasure to comply with any request made by the friend of such a gallant soldier as Colonel Rennie - that he had taken care to protect his remains, and to order fer them an honourable grave. The watch, ring, and brooch, were all returned to me. Accustomed as we had been for years to Oppose an honourable and a courteous enemy, it was a green spot in the wilderness of American campaigning to find one of the same stamp in the present President of the United States.
