Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Eight Weeks to Collaborative Co-Parenting for Divorcing Parents, family law specialist and mediator Carol F. Delzer shines a light of hope and sanity on the co-parenting process during a divorce. Too many children are pushed aside as their parents battle over issues that may or may not directly affect each child's well-being. So how can parents support their children through this difficult period? How do they move from marriage partners to parenting partners? Delzer shows how to build an honesty-based, collaborative relationship that resolves conflict, including managing emotions, showing mutual respect, and entering healthy negotiations. More than a guide, this is a program that the courts and parents can use to maximize a peaceful transition while minimizing the emotional damage suffered by their children. Straightforward and user-friendly, this book will help parents will learn the kind of positive collaborative wisdom that leads to healthier divorce and happier children.
