By Lacey Lee

Austin Macauley Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Josephine Tea, Lacey Lee, Creeping through the bushes, sneaking messages through to London, being scared out of their wits, seeking Daddy's prized possession. Yikes! It wasn't easy being an expat child for the very first time! Moving sucks. at first! The Bradley girls' adventure in Botswana oozes hoots of side-splitting laughter, rains tears of sadness in buckets, and even pops out evil and bad people like a sticky piece of vile pink gum. Ely and Daisy Bradley, Tshepo and Loti, had to learn the hard way what the true value of friendship was. In a country rich with myth, legends and monsters, the Tokolosh, mean thieves and a vicious snake, shook the friends to their boots. Thank goodness, that after a deep sniff of Josephine's famous sweet, sugary tea, this old world always seemed all right again.
