

Iowa State Cyclones football

By Frederic P. Miller

Alphascript Publishing Jul 2009, 2009. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - The Iowa State Cyclones football team represent Iowa State University in college football. The Cyclones competes in the northern division of the Big 12 athletic conference in the NCAA's Division I Football Bowl Subdivision. ISU started playing football in 1892, however, it did not become an official sport until 1894. The Cyclones have a 476 556 46 all time record and are 2 7 in post season play. The Iowa State Cyclones play home games in Jack Trice Stadium in Ames, Iowa. Football first made its way onto the Iowa State campus in 1878 as a recreational sport, but it wasn't until 1892 that a orgnized group of athletes first represented Iowa State in football. In 1894, college president William M. Beardshear spearheaded the foundation of an athletic association to officially sanction Iowa State football teams. The 1894 team finished with a 6 1 mark, including a 16 8 victory over what is now the University of Iowa. 188 pp. Englisch.
