Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Twenty-One Years of Mission Work in Toronto: 1886 1907, the Story of the Fred Victor Mission Station work done by Miss Lang, our station deaconess. To meet the incoming trains every day, and lookout for opportunities to help the needy is her duty. Perhaps it may not seem a very pleasant task, in view of the draughty train shed, the smoke and noise, the ever-bustling throngs and the many flights of stairs which must be climbed so frequently. But the grateful appreciation of the many helped is a compensation which lightens an otherwise difficult task. To help tired mothers with their children, to make an invalid comfortable for even a short hour, to direct those who are not acquainted with the city and its ways to their destinations, to find employment for strange young women coming to town, or to find for them the protection of a safe home until they find employment - these are but a few of the kind of services rendered to the travelling public. Mrs. Gardiner, formerly in charge of this work, was compelled to relinquish it. We learn with pleasure of her improved condition. We are glad to have in her place one of such devotion and enthusiasm as Miss Lang. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
