Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Annual Report of the Department of Labor and Industries To the General Court. The report of the Commissioner of Labor and Industries is herewith submitted. It contains a summary of the work of the Department for the year ending November 30, 1920, a statement of the expenditures for this period together with recommendations for legislation and appropriation for the ensuing year. Included in this report are the reports of the directors of the several divisions into which the Department has been organized. These give in detail an account of the character and result of the work accomplished by the Department. Establishment of the Department. The Department of Labor and Industries was created by act of the Legislature of 1919. By this Act, chapter 350 of the General Acts of 1919, - which became effective December 1 of the same year, - the functions of the former Board of Labor and Industries; the Board of Conciliation and Arbitration; the Minimum Wage Commission; the following divisions of the Bureau of Statistics: labor statistics, manufactures statistics, and public employment offices; and the offices of the Commissioner of Standards and the Surveyor-General of Lumber were transferred to and placed under one department, called the Department of Labor and Industries. Administration. The Department is under the supervision and control of five commissioners, - a Commissioner of Labor and Industries, and Assistant Commissioner and three Associate Commissioners.
