Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Some Phases of Preference in Imperial Policy: Imperial Federation League of Australia Frequently in discussions on imperial preference trade relations are separated from every other national consideration, and disparagingly referred to as sordid bonds, and the beneficial effects of the interdependence of the multifarious services of the Empire are consequently unheeded. The mundane affairs of commerce and industry, with the necessity of maintaining them in perfect security, are essential factors of our national existence and welfare, and are closely linked with the people's spiritual interests. Our final record in history may indeed be the great ideals of nationhood we stood for, as expressed in our literature, art, and laws, but the strength to do these things, and the power to give them enduring worth, require a spirit of expansiveness, and a breadth of imagination as well as an ability for skilful manipulation of material resources, combined with a ready capacity to turn them to the utmost profitable advantage. These energies, deeply absorbed as they were in promoting the material well-being of the people, constitute an important source for the maintenance of those higher duties which vitally affect their future standing and influence. Indifference to these physical necessities on the part of leaders must inevitably bring about national decay, whereas a lively concern in all that pertains to commercial activity and industrial advancement will tend to produce a strong sense of unity and conserve national self-dependence. The recognition of all interests, with a due regard to the mutual obligations involved, is essential for the compact development of the Empire. These common purposes necessitate readiness to resist external pressure likely to militate against their successful fulfilment. We cannot set ourselves...
